

"SOME STEPPERS, HOT PEPPERS"

At the CAKE-WALK JUBILEE

WORDS AND MUSIC BY
GUS E. BUTLER

BILLY STONEHAM

BOB ALLAN

As Originally Introduced by BOB ALLAN and BILLY STONEHAM

5
PUBLISHED FOR
BAND and ORCHESTRA

WILL ROSSITER
THE CHICAGO PUBLISHER
136 W. LAKE ST., CHICAGO, ILL.
Copyright 1914 by Will Rossiter

At the Cake - Walk Jubilee

Words & Music by GUS E. BUTLER

Mod^{to} (not too slow)

Vamp

Crowds go - ing, all blow - ing, — A-bout that Cake-walk Ju - bi-lee — Swell la - dies Cake walk - ing, still talk - ing, — A-bout that Cake-walk Ju - bi-lee, — Some yell - ing, mp

some "ba - bies," Ev'-ry one as hap-py as can be: — all tell - ing That it was the greatest sight to see: —

Some step-pers, hot "pep - pers"
News pa - pers print ca - pers,

That's Johnson's ragtime band, — The best one in the land. —
Looks mighty good to read, — The "menu" of that "feed!" —

They win ev - 'ry prize, they sure har - mon-ize, down at the Ju - bi - lee. —
Pork-chops, kid - ney stew, chickens, poss - um too, down at the Ju - bi - lee. —

CHORUS

At the Cake-walk Ju-bi - lee — Mingle in so-ci - e - ty — the band a-play - ing, the dan-cers sway - ing: — Chancing, glanc-ing, pranc-ing, danc-ing,

That's our one de - light: _____ Dancing morning, noon and night. _____ When the band played the old tune, "My Mar - i - utch;" Then all of the crowd did the

"Broadway Mooche," Some hot time at that Cake-walk Ju - bi - lee _____ At the lee, _____