Come on, Sue, - come on, Sue, -
Dream-y strains, dream-y strains,

Ev - 'ry - bod - y's go - ing, so let's go too; - Did you hear what the Ev - 'ry - bod - y's hum - ming that sweet re - frain, Down in old dream-y pa - pers say 'Bout the San Fran - cis - co cab - a - ret?

Chi - na - town, With the lan - terns glow - ing all a - round;

They're all ex - cit - ed, ev - 'ry - bod - y's de - light - ed, Be - cause they're That's where the dancing and the mus - ic en - tranc - ing Will send your on — their way. Hur - ry, Sue, — hur - ry, Sue, — brain a - whirl. Cab - a - ret, — cab - a - ret, —

Ev - 'ry - bod - y's read - y but me and you. — Pack your clothes, hon - ey,
There we'll dance the tan - go both night and day. — Dont be slow, hon - ey, right a - way, Then we'll start for dear old 'Fris - co Bay;

let us go, If we lin - ger, then we'll miss the show;

rall.

The crowd is sway-ing while the big band is play-ing A rag-time mel-o-dy.
Oh, there's your moth-er, there's your sis-ter and broth-er, They're bound — for Frisco town.

rall.

CHORUS p-f

They're on their way ————— to the Fris-co Cab-a-ret.

Oh, hon-ey, life ————— is just a mer-ry song,

There ————— you'll love to lin-ger long With sing-ing, danc-ing, tunes en-tranc-ing, hon-ey. Oh, come a - long, Get right in tune, _____ Let's be leav-ing might-y soon; _____ For all the folks that you ev - er knew.

Will be leav-ing on the next choo choo; They're on their way, _____ they're on their way _____ To the 'Fris-co Cab-a - ret. They're on their ret. _____
