

A GREAT DANCE NUMBER -

DU-DAH

SONG AND FOX TROT

Arr. By
J. Russel Robinson

Words & Music
by LEO BRENNAN and
ROY WILLIAMS

PUB. BY BRENNAN & WILLIAMS
ANDERSON, IND.

DU-DAH

Words and Music by Leo Brennan & Roy Williams
Arr. by J. Russel Robinson

Moderato

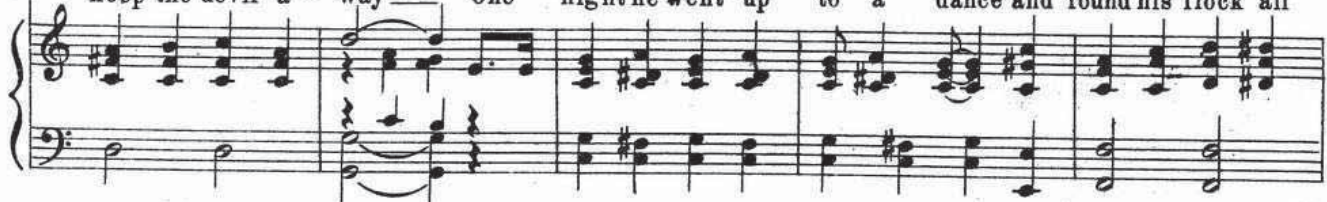

Voice

now dance stuff and it's wear-in' out my shoes — I've nearly lost my blame fool head and my down our way eve-ry Sun-day he would pray — Oh Lord have mercy on these poor souls and wife is slip-pin' too — If you want to shake a real mean hoof and throw a wick-ed keep the devil a - way — One night he went up to a dance and found his flock all hip — Just try this dance and I'll guar-an - tee it sure will make a hit. — there — The next church morn as the bells ring out from the pul-pit he did shout.

Copyright MCMXIX by Brennan and Williams.
312 E. 13th St. Anderson, Ind.

This number may be played or sung without fee or license.

CHORUS

3

First you hear the mus-ic and you grab your gal Hold-er kind-a close like an old time pal Shake a lit-tle shim-mie but watch your step Cause may-be she wont do that Du-dah Du-dah Drag 'em for-ward bring'em back and dont for-get Make 'em shake a-cross the floor with lots of pep And as you glide and slide a-round the hall You'll for-get you ev-er lived at all Bet-ter learn that Du-dah do I'm tell-in' you. you.

p-f

8

1 2

f

Du-Dah, 2.